

AAFP Alternate Delegate – 2021-2022

Lauren V. Carruth, MD

Capital Health Primary Care – Ewing and Washington Crossing

Lauren Carruth, MD received her medical degree from Robert Wood UMDNJ, Piscataway, NJ and completed a residency in Family Medicine at Hunterdon Medical Center in Flemington, NJ. She currently practices at Capital Health Primary Care in Ewing, NJ and Washington Crossing, PA. She is a lead physician at Capital and was the chair of the outpatient opioid committee.

While in her previous position she was lead physician for AtlantiCare with the NJAFP PCMH pilot project. Lauren is a past-president of the NJAFP, where she initially served on the NJAFP board as a resident trustee and then was a Board Trustee from 2008-2014.