

Nicole Florio, CCMA, CPT, CET

Clinical Supervisor

Nicole Florio is a clinical supervisor at Vanguard Medical Group and has been with the organization for over ten years. She leads the COVID-19 drive-thru vaccination where her team has administered over 7500 vaccines. She manages the vaccine inventory, submits daily reporting, monitors the freezer and refrigerator data loggers, and helps the scheduling team. Nicole has accomplished to have zero vaccine doses wasted since December 2020. Outside of COVID-19 vaccine, she supervises the specialty departments, medical assistants, and medical supply ordering for Vanguard's largest clinical office in Verona.
